CELEBRITY RESORTS ADDS HANAIEI BAY RESORT TO ITS DESTINATION PORTFOLIO

Orlando, Florida – Celebrity Resorts today announced the acquisition of the Hanalei Bay Resort from Quintus Resorts. The acquisition serves to expand the company’s interest in the Hawaii market, adding a popular vacation destination known for its natural beauty.

The resort is a 22-acre property located on Hanalei Bay along the north shore of the island of Kauai. Hanalei Bay is a half-moon stretch of sandy beach carved into the base of a sheer cliff on the west side of the resort, and narrowing into a rocky point to the east of the resort.

Many of the suites at Hanalei Bay Resort have ocean or mountain views and the property amenities include swimming pools, tennis courts, two on-site restaurants, and Hawaiian gardens. Resort owners and guests also have access to a secluded beach, which the resort shares with the Princeville Hotel (soon to be re-branded St. Regis), an adjacent hotel property.

“Our team remains focused on acquiring resort destinations for our collection that appeal to our owners and guests. We are thrilled to welcome Hanalei Bay Resort to our family,” says Jared Meyers, president and chief executive officer of Celebrity Resorts. “Our plan is to continue to expand our resort portfolio within the U.S., and we expect more growth in the near future.”
