Celebrity Resorts to Host "Spooktacular" Golf Tournament Benefiting Give Kids The World Village

Orlando, FL – Celebrity Resorts today announced that the timeshare company will host its inaugural charity Golf Spooktacular on October 30, 2007. All the proceeds from the event will benefit Give Kids The World Village, a non-profit resort in Central Florida that provides vacation experiences for children with life-threatening illnesses and their families.

The Halloween-themed, 18-hole tournament will be held at Eagle Creek Golf Club, beginning with a 2:00 p.m. shotgun start and played in a best ball format. For the novice golfer Celebrity Resorts will also host a "Voodoo" tournament, starting at 7:00 p.m., that includes a putting contest, longest-drive challenge, and closest to the pin competition.

"The Golf Spooktacular gives Celebrity Resorts, its employees and business partners the opportunity to support a cause that is near and dear to our hearts – giving children unforgettable vacation experiences," said Craig Lewis, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Celebrity Resorts. "I warmly invite all businesses of the Central Florida community to join in on the fun and help make a difference for the families benefiting from Give Kids The World Village."

The costs of participating in the Golf Spooktacular are $150 per player for the golf tournament (includes the Voodoo tournament), $50 to register for the Voodoo tournament only, and spectators can join in on the fun for $25. Refreshments and an awards ceremony will follow the golf tournament. Prizes will be awarded to the first, second and third place teams.

Sponsorship opportunities are available and encouraged. For more information about the Golf Spooktacular, please visit www.golfspooktacular.com. If you have any questions, contact Melissa Van Dine at 407-996-3090.
