Celebrity Resorts Announces New Vice President of Human Resources

Orlando, FL- Celebrity Resorts, a vacation ownership company that has more than doubled in size since 2003, today announces the appointment of Melissa Van Dine, PHR to the position of Vice President of Human Resources.

Mrs. Van Dine has extensive experience in the field of Human Resources, having held positions in all facets of the field, such as employee relations, training and recruiting. She has worked in the vacation ownership industry for the last four years, joining Celebrity Resorts in 2003 as the Director of Human Resources.

Mrs. Van Dine is responsible for all areas of internal development for the company, and will focus on meeting the growth demands. She will continue to report to Craig Lewis, Executive Vice President and C.O.O.

"I am very excited about Melissa's joining the Celebrity Resorts executive management team. I sincerely believe we are exceptionally fortunate to have someone of her caliber heading our Human Resources department," said Mr. Lewis. He continued, "Our dramatic growth over the past two years, coupled with our plans to accelerate future growth, has mandated we have the best possible person for this critical management responsibility."

Founded in 1979, Celebrity Resorts has developed and managed numerous timeshare projects. The company is headquartered in Orlando, Florida, and they currently have 16 resorts in 6 states, with a growth plan calling for additional properties in 2006.
